

Don't Worry

If you are sick, don't worry, but begin at once to make yourself well. To do this, we but repeat the words of thousands of other sufferers from womanly ills, when we say:

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

For 50 years, this wonderful female remedy, has been benefiting sick women. Mrs. Jennie Merrick, of Cambridge City, Ind., says: "I suffered greatly with female trouble, and the doctors did no good. They wanted to operate, but I took Cardui, and it made me feel like a new woman. I am still using this wonderful medicine, with increasing relief."

Beginning with December, 1908, Virginia's will have a state magazine published under the name of the Virginia Magazine. In the announcement of its editors in the first issue, which will come from the press during the last week in November, it is stated that the intention is to provide a strictly independent and popular monthly periodical. Every week there will be a review of events in Virginia, a business and trade summary, a digest of public opinion in the state, editorial comment, special articles by well-known Virginia writers, and regular departments for the school and farm.

The first number will contain articles by Dr. S. C. Mitchell, formerly of Richmond College, and one of the leading educators of the state; Dr. Walter J. Quick, professor of Animal Husbandry in the Virginia Polytechnic Institute; State Inspector James C. Thomas, and other writers. It is to be published in Lynchburg, and will be under the management of Mr. Edgar Sydenstricker as its editor-in-chief.

LOTS AND IMPROVEMENTS

Resolved, That the Collector of Taxes be, and he is hereby, directed to proceed and sell at public auction all real estate in the city of Alexandria on which taxes are due and unpaid to June 1, 1908, in conformity to the City Charter and laws relating to the same, said sale to commence Wednesday, December 2, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue from time to time and from day to day until all such real estate is sold.

The purchaser will be required to pay, at the time of sale, the taxes, assessments, charges and expenses of sale.
